

Lleida and Alcarràs

April 21st, 2023

One-day event to strengthen ties and promote new local circular bioeconomy initiatives.

We want to bring together multiple key agents from the Ebro Valley to share successful experiences and discuss how to use these shared experiences to spread the circular bioeconomy making possible other similar initiatives.

Spreading the bioeconomy in the Ebro Valley.

Local models.

Aimed at key stakeholders

This event, organized with the participation of five EU projects, is intended for key stakeholders (administration, general consumers, producers, industry, academy, organizations). We aim to reunite about 50 agents to share their experiences and future prospects.
